SUPERBLY ILLUSTRATED WORKS,

OF PERMANENT ARTISTIC VALUE, FOR THE HOLIDAY SEASON 1882-83.A COMPANION VOLUME TO "VENICE."
FLORENCE.

ITS HISTORY—THE MEDICIS—ITS SCHOLARS—ARCHITECTURE—PAINTINGS—SCULPTURE, Etc.

By CHARLES YRIARTE. Illustrated by over 500 photogravures and engravings. One volume, folio, richly bound in cloth extra, gilt edges, morocco backs, $20; or, in full morocco, extra gilt, $28.

This sumptuous volume, perfect in every attribute of elegance, fitly supplements the author's artistic work on "Venice," the success of which was something phenomenal. Dealing with the great Art City of Italy, the home of Dante and Michel Angelo, the centre of all that is purest in Architecture, Painting, and Sculpture, with an influence extending throughout the world, "Florence" well deserves to be loved and unceasingly studied. This volume is confidently placed before the public as having few equals in the domain of illustrated literature.

THE HISTORY OF FASHION
IN FRANCE.

Or, The Dress of Women, from the Gallo-Roman Period to the Present Time.

From the French of M. Augustin Challamel. By Mrs. CASHEL HOEV and Mr. JOHN LILLIE. One volume, imperial 8vo, with 21 richly colored and illuminated plates, containing 84 distinct figures and varieties of costume; richly bound in imitation satin-wood, extra gilt, $10.

Fashion is the exponent, from the standpoint of costume, of our habits and our social relations; in a word, of everything pertaining to the charm of life; it has its value as a moral sign-post, and supplies the historian, the philosopher, and the novelist with a guide to the prevailing ideas of the time. This work is of genuine importance as a comprehensive history of the subject and of universal interest, appealing to every class and nation. In a clear and graphic style, lightened by frequent social and illustrative anecdotes, the author follows thoroughly the course of Fashion from the "pastel dye" and "tattoo" of the primitive Gauls, down to the more graceful and artistic effects of the year 1880, while the 84 distinct figures, brilliant in colors, supply abundant pictorial embellishment; a new and unique binding of exceptional beauty and effectiveness renders the book as a whole all that can be desired.

Brine's 'My Boy and I; or, On the Road to Slumberland.' The only extended poem on that theme that we can now recall, it has great merit, whether considered as the expression of mere human emotion or as the utterance of poetic feeling."—Harpers Monthly.

THE MAGAZINE OF ART.

A Richly Illustrated and Varied Record of the Beauties of Ancient, Mediæval, and Contemporary Taste.

PRICE, 35 CENTS, MONTHLY. $3.50 PER YEAR.

The NEW VOLUME commences with the December Number, 1882.

CLOTH CASES for binding Volumes IV and V. will be sent postpaid for 75 cents each. Parties sending their Parts, prepaid, can have them bound in cloth, gilt edges, for $1.50 per Volume.

FIVE years have now elapsed since THE MAGAZINE OF ART was projected, the intention of the Proprietors being that the treasures of Art in all its branches should be brought within the reach of every cultivated home.

Received at the outset, in Great Britain and America, with unexampled favor, it has steadily strengthened its hold upon the public; and it is now perhaps the most widely esteemed Magazine of its kind in existence.

With this success, it has become comparatively easy to provide for the further development of its utility and attractiveness. Its aim, as heretofore, will be the popularization of Art, and the gratification of the growing interest of all classes in whatever is beautiful and refined. The Magazine will deal with all the modes of artistic expression, and serve, for every class alike, as a permanent record, pictorial and descriptive, of the Artist's best work.

In these days Art is no longer restricted to the studio. It occupies a growing space in the lives of all of us. THE MAGAZINE OF ART will therefore devote special attention to whatever tends to give grace and beauty to the world we live in.

A few of the more important features to be treated in the New Volume are mentioned below, but space precludes the Editor from giving a complete list of the papers for which he has already arranged.

PROGRAMME OF THE NEW VOLUME.

The FIRST NUMBER of the NEW VOLUME (Dec., 1882) will be enriched by a beautiful ETCHING, by LALAUZE, from an Original Drawing by G. L. SEYMOUR, entitled "MAIDEN-DREAMS."

Prof. SIDNEY COLVIN will contribute an Article on Dante Rossetti, and Articles on some Painters represented in the Fitzwilliam Museum.

A Poem by Mr. E. W. GOSSE, with Illustrations by Mr. SEYMOUR LUCAS, will appear in an early number.

Mr. AUSTIN DOBSON will contribute a "Ballade of the Thrush."

The Monthly Record of American Art, which has met with such favor, not only from Artists, but also from the Public, will be continued. It will include as heretofore, the freshest and most important information regarding every branch of the subject, together with concise Critical Notices of the leading Art Exhibitions and Publications of this country. This department is in charge of a leader in Art matters, and will add to the value of THE MAGAZINE OF ART as an exponent of American Art.

The work will be issued in two editions; one con-other—"Artists' Edition"—having, in addition to the text and diagrams, examples washed in light and dark tones, of ONE HUNDRED AND TWENTY pigments, now in general use in Water-Color Art, being about forty more than are to be found in any list heretofore issued.

The examples are washed from standard pigments on Water-Color paper, by the author, or under his immediate supervision, and include colors of English, German, and French manufacture; comprising, with two or three unimportant exceptions, all pigments used in modern Water-Color painting. The examples will prove of value to artists, as a book of ready reference for the hues of pigments, and will also be of service to teachers in art schools and dealers in artists' materials. The present issue of the "Artists' Edition" will be a limited one.

This book on Water-Color, a branch becoming highly popular as a medium of general art instruction in schools, etc., is not a reprint, or a compilation from foreign art literature, but is the fruit of a long experience and careful research. It will be found to contain, in a concise form, much that will respond to the wants of amateurs and beginners in the use of color.

THE BOY'S PERCY.

Robin Hood, and the doughty Douglass, and Witherington, and the rest of the old English ballad heroes, may be familiar in name to every boy through weak dilutions of their stories; but he never really knows them till he reads of them in all the swing and stir of the ballad-verse, whose spirit and vigor is like nothing else he will ever find in literature.

Mr. Lanier's books, which made him the companion and friend of half the boys of the country, and showed his remarkable talent for guiding them into the best parts of this ideal world, fitly close by giving the best of the ballads in their purest and strongest form, from Bishop Percy's famous collection. With the Boy's Froissart, the Boy's King Arthur, the Mabinogion, and the Boy's Percy, Mr. Lanier's readers have the Advertising.For any responsible advertiser, making application in good faith, we prepare and furnish a written estimate, showing the cost of any proposed advertising in the leading Newspapers of the United States and Dominion of Canada.We prepare and exhibit printed proofs of any proposed advertisements.For the preparing of estimates no charge is made, and the applicant is placed under no obligation to transact his advertising business through us unless it appears to him that by doing so he will best advance his own interests.A copy of the advertisement, a list of the papers, the space the advertisement is to occupy, and the time it is to appear should all be given with the application for an estimate of the cost.When an advertiser does not know what he wants or what he ought to do, he can designate some sum of money within which he wishes to limit his expenditure; this will enable us to prepare for him such a list of papers as will be the best for his purpose, within the limits which he prescribes.
